

TASTING REPORT

CATTLEYA WINES

“...notes that are rich and supple, with baking spices, candied ginger peel and mandarine orange.” - MaryAnn Worobiec

- 2021 CATTLEYA CHARDONNAY CUVÉE NUMBER FIVE

“Very pure, with a beam of mulberry puree spilling...” - James Molesworth

- 2021 CATTLEYA PINOT NOIR CUVÉE NUMBER ONE

“...hard-to-resist core of plum and boysenberry...” - James Molesworth

- 2021 CATTLEYA PINOT NOIR CUVÉE NUMBER EIGHT

2021 CATTLEYA CHARDONNAY CUVÉE NUMBER FIVE

Shows salted butterscotch, peach pastry and baked apple notes that are rick and supple, with baking spices, candied ginger peel and mandarin orange. Reveals fresh acidity and a sweet cream not that lingers. - MaryAnn Worobiec

---

92
POINTS

2021 CATTLEYA PINOT NOIR CUVÉE NUMBER ONE

Very pure, with a beam of mulberry puree spilling through, flanked by subtle red tea, apple wood and incense. The finish has a nicely inlaid spine, giving this focus and length.
- James Molesworth

---

92
POINTS

2021 CATTLEYA PINOT NOIR CUVÉE NUMBER EIGHT

Delivers a lush, hard-to-resist core of plum and boysenberry preserves that roll through, laced with anise and sweet spices on the broad finish. For fans of the not-shy-style.
- James Molesworth

---

91
POINTS